PRESS RELEASE

Swearing In Ceremony for Police Chief

David Henslee will be sworn in as the City of Klamath Falls Police Chief on Monday, March 30, 2015 at 8:30 a.m. The Ceremony will be held in the Police Department building. The public is invited and need to enter through the front door.

Chief Henslee has 22 years of law enforcement experience in Corvallis, Oregon. After he received his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon State University, he began his police work on the recommendation of a college counselor. He was hired as a police officer in 1993 and during that time, Chief Henslee served as a Detective primarily focused on child abuse investigations and major crimes, a patrol Sergeant and Lieutenant. He was promoted to the rank of Captain in 2012 where his duties mainly consisted of overseeing the Corvallis' Community Services Division, Traffic Enforcement and Animal Control.

City Manager Nathan Cherpeski stated "we are extremely pleased to find someone with David's experience in law enforcement and he will be a tremendous addition to the Police Department and the City. We look forward to working with David to address the concerns of our citizens and providing them the highest levels of service possible."
