DISCLAIMER

This is a publication of the Association of Clean Water Agencies, the League of Oregon Cities, and the Oregon Water Utilities Council. It is intended as an educational service for the benefit of their members. It should not be construed as providing a complete guide to every aspect of environmental permitting or the Endangered Species Act or the range of activities subject thereto, or as providing legal advice or a legal opinion on specific facts or circumstances. Readers should consult a lawyer concerning their own circumstances and any specific legal questions they may have. In addition, any references cited in this manual are intended as a general guidance and are not warranted as being specifically applicable to any particular circumstance. Readers are urged to consult a lawyer and/or biologist to answer specific questions pertaining to their own circumstances.
